HOLY TRINITY UPCOMING EVENTS AND REMINDERS

*Holy Trinity is conducting its annual stewardship campaign for calendar year 2021 from now through late November. The theme of our drive is centered around the story of Zacchaeus, the appointed tax collector for Jericho as depicted in the Gospel of Luke, whose life was dramatically and permanently changed after he came to understand that caring for others and sharing your blessings are the heart and soul of living a purposeful Christian life. As we move forward in partnership with Father Brian Barry, our new priest in charge, the wardens and vestry of our parish eagerly anticipate working all of our members in pursuing this exciting new chapter in our common spiritual journey.

2021 pledge Drive Are you IN? INcluded, INvested, INVolved

*Early warning that Daylight Savings Time comes to an end on the morning of Sunday, November 1, which coincides with All Saints Day. Though the days are growing shorter, the movement of the clock back by one hour provides a little extra shuteye for the sleep deprived among us.

* The truncated 60 game major league baseball seasons closes on this day, Sunday September 27. With playoffs coming in October, the Yankees will be playing as the leaves change color, while the Mets at this time of writing are getting an early jump on their winter hibernation. I would otherwise mention what's going on with the football Giants and Jets, but why add to the pain of an already difficult year? Stay well and keep safe, and we will talk again very soon.

God's Peace,

Carl Bucking
